

Biography

Angus (Lam Chi-kwong) has been involved in the organic movement since 1994. He used to work as Farm Manager in Produce Green Foundation and Kadoorie Farm & Botanic Garden for 8 years. In 1999, he found the Hong Kong Organic Farming Association (HOFA) with 8 local organic farms to promote the organic movement in HK. Since 2002, he has shifted his career focus to Mainland China. He worked with Greenpeace from 2002-2007 as Food & Agriculture campaigner to stop GE Food production and illegal pesticide use in China. He is now working with the Partnership for Community Development (a charitable organization under the Kadoorie Foundation) to conduct capacity building program on ecological agriculture in rural part of South West China. Besides, he has been working with Ecocert-QAI Japan as organic inspector since 2002.